Warning to Wage Earners.

Bolton Hall, writing in the Chicago Record, makes a strong appeal to the manhood of America in Mr. Bryan's behalf. He says:

Before the Cuban war we reformers told the Central Labor union that the soldiers they pay to shoot their Spanish brethren would be used to murder them, and the representative of labor was angry; but since then labor has felt the horrors of the Cœur d'Alene and will feel more horrors of the same sort.

Yes. Take the Philippines! Philippine labor is cheap and will nicely reduce our wages, and Philippine lives are cheaper—a brown regiment will be as efficient in Chicago as a black one in Idaho. This will happen, for consequence is inevitable, and "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Mr. Bryan has well summarized the reasons for our "forcible annexation" of the Philippine Islands. "There is money in it." "We are in it," and "God is in it." "There is money in it"—for those that already own you. "We are in it"—with our lives and our pocketbooks—and the sooner we get out the better for us. "God is in it," visiting the iniquities of us fathers upon the children even unto the third and fourth generation.

It is our concern—you and I pay the taxes, the sinews of war, and we are guilty of the innocent lives sacrificed for their love of liberty in the far-off islands of the sea.

Oh American men and women, hear before it is too late, the blood of the little brown men that crieth from the ground of the military murder camps of Luzon. "Thou art thy brother's keeper."

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The Arcadia Valley Drug Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

The Bible of Imperialism.

Imperialism finds no warrant in the Bible. The command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" has no Gatling gun attachment. When Jesus visited a village of Samaritans and the people refused to receive him, some of the disciples suggested that fire should be called down from heaven to revenge the insult; but the Master rebuked them and said: "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of; for the Son of Man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." Suppose he had said: "We will thrash them until they understand who we are," how different would have been the history of Christianity! Compare, if you will, the swaggering, bullying, brutal doctrine of imperialism with the golden rule and the commandment, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Love, not force, was the weapon of the Nazarene; sacrifice for others, not the exploitation of them, was His method of reaching the human heart. A missionary recently told me that the stars and stripes once saved his life because his assailant recognized our flag as a flag that had no blood upon it.

Let it be known that our missionaries are seeking souls instead of sovereignty; let it be known that instead of being the advance guard of conquering armies, they are going forth to help and uplift, having their loins girt about with truth and their feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace, wearing the breastplate of righteousness and carrying the sword of the spirit; let it be known that they are citizens of a nation which respects the rights of the citizens of other nations as carefully as it protects the rights of its own citizens, and the welcome given to our missionaries will be more cordial than the welcome extended to the missionaries of any other nation.

W. J. BRYAN.

The most delicate constitution can safely use BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It is a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25 and 50 cts. For sale by G. W. Marshall.

Thou Shalt Not Steal.

"Thou shalt not steal" is an apt text to use in preaching against trusts, and Mr. Bryan employed it with force and appositeness in his address before the students of the Chicago University a few days ago.

The fact that these monopolies steal under warrant of law, or by reason of the failure of corrupt or weak officials to enforce the law, does not give the hue of morality to their methods. Stealing is taking what belongs to another, and whether that stealing is performed by the stealthy sneak thief, the bold robber, or the extortions of a commercial combine, which has organized to plunder the public by throttling competition, restricting trade, or exercising special privileges under legislation which it has purchased through venal public servants, the moral aspect is the same.

The only difference between the highwayman and the trusts is a difference in the instrument employed to carry out the robbery, the former employing a gun or a bludgeon to force money from his victims, while the latter employs the force that lies in the compulsion exercised by accumulated wealth.

In his letter of acceptance, Mr. McKinley proceeds with Hannesque shiftiness to indicate that there are some good trusts and some bad ones, and intimates it is the intention of his party to curb the one kind and let the other pursue its path of "benevolent accumulation."

How sincere is McKinley may be judged by the wonderful rapidity with which these forms of monopoly were permitted to multiply since he became president, and by the masterly inactivity shown by his department of justice in providing that they be not molested in their predatory course.

An additional indication of how sincere Mr. McKinley is in his declared determination to restrain the "bad" trusts is observable in the fact that these monopolies are contributing millions to purchase his re-election. If re-elected Mr. McKinley will probably carry out his promise to punish the "bad" trusts by having his attorney general institute proceedings against such of them, if they can be found, as have not contributed during the campaign to Hanna's lush fund.—Kansas City Times.

How Bright's Disease Starts.

Indigestion, biliousness, blood poisoned with urea and uric acid (which should have been excreted by the kidneys), rheumatic pains in nerves and joints, causing irritation of the kidneys, then pains over the small of the back, mark sure approach of Bright's Disease. Do not delay taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE, for it makes the kidneys right. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

To American Parents.

In the trust problem lurk troubles for the American people which are being regarded with more apprehension every day. Mr. Bryan's masterly treatment of the question will appeal with peculiar force to the commercial travelers for whose benefit it was specially prepared, but every American parent will see the truthful power of the argument.

These monopolies threaten the independence of manhood in the United States. Mr. Bryan might well ask fathers and mothers whether they are satisfied with a condition which threatens to reduce nine citizens out of ten to the state of serving-men and to raise the other tenth to the rank of imperial masters.

There is iniquity in the trust evil for the buyer of life's necessities, but the economic side is not the worst feature of the question. The social aspect—the disappearance of expectation in the young American that hard work will bring independent competency—arouses fear that the best characteristics of American citizen will be lost in a cruel oligarchy of industry.—St. Louis Republic.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands.
